F049540      People v. Rodriguez

The judgment of sentence is vacated with directions as follows: If the People, or the trial court on its own motion, do not bring the matter before the trial court for a contested re-sentencing hearing within 60 days after the filing of the remittitur in the trial court, the trial court shall proceed as if the remittitur constituted a modification of the judgment to reflect a sentence of the middle term and shall so modify the abstract of judgment. The People shall notify the trial court and Rodriguez's trial counsel in writing of their intentions in this regard within 30 days after the filing of the remittitur. Should the People state an intention not to contest the modification to the middle term, or fail to notify the trial court of its intentions within the 30 days and the trial court declines to schedule a contested re-sentencing hearing on its own, the trial court shall modify the abstract of judgment as provided here, including staying the sentence on count 4 pursuant to section 654. The judgment is otherwise affirmed. Cornell, Acting P.J.
